

Delivering local assessment

Exercise 1

Your council receives a letter of complaint from Mr Suppup, the landlord of the Thug and Fetish, a well known hostelry in the local town. He makes the following allegations about Councillor Lika Drink:

On the 25 September Cllr Drink came to my pub and got 'somewhat the worse for wear'. Cllr Drink was having a night out with his mates from work. During the course of the evening he was asked to leave by a member of my staff because he and his friends were getting rowdy and were causing annoyance to my other guests.

He refused saying "Do you know who I am? I can have this place closed down if you keep this up."

When asked to leave by the door staff Cllr Drink became violent, lashing out at the staff, knocking over tables and spilling people's drinks. As he was being forcibly removed he yelled "I am a councillor, you can't do this to me you morons. I'll have you!"

I think it is disgusting that a member of your council behaves in this way. Typically the police aren't interested. You should do something about it and I don't want him dealing with my application for extended hours when that comes up.

You are a member of the sub-committee asked to consider this complaint. How would you deal with it?
