

In confidence

Paragraph 4

You must not:

- a) disclose information given to you in confidence by anyone, or information acquired by you which you believe, or ought reasonably to be aware, is of a confidential nature, except where:
 - i) you have the consent of a person authorised to give it;
 - ii) you are required by law to do so;
 - iii) the disclosure is made to a third party for the purpose of obtaining professional advice provided that the third party agrees not to disclose the information to any other person; or
 - iv) the disclosure is:
 - aa) reasonable and in the public interest; and
 - bb) made in good faith and in compliance with the reasonable requirements of the authority; or
- b) prevent another person from gaining access to information to which that person is entitled by law.
